brand concept

B2GO is developed by a team of creative professionals driven by a desire to make convenience food better for everyone. Our vision is to provide customized F&B solutions for corporate offices, government institutions, universities & schools, museums, hospitals & clinics and more.

B2GO is a new brand that brings together our heritage in specialized products and services, such as ondemand manufacturing of fresh food, frozen and pre-packaged goods and the licensing of renowned brands. Today, we source, create, and deliver high-quality convenience food under one brand.

Transforming ideas into smart solutions through our wide range of products for people on the go.

The food industry is evolving rapidly.

Whether in service, travel, or retail, people seek new flavors and better food quality. We exist to help you create products that meet the needs of the people on the go and fulfill the highest standards in packaged food. We listen to what your consumers are saying, and deliver accordingly. Our wide spectrum of packaged products combined with our flexible solutions for service, retail, and travel make sure that what we do is designed to your needs.

food concept

Months of research, recipe creation and testing by our talented multicultural team of internationally acclaimed chefs and dietitians produced B2GO's extensive menu, which will leave customers spoiled for choice.

Boasting over 30 mouthwatering items, including crisp salads and fresh sandwiches, B2GO also provides comforting hot meals, inspired by both international and regional cuisines, indulgent desserts, premium snacks, and refreshing hot and cold drinks – making B2GO your ideal destination for breakfast, lunch, dinner, and everything in between.

We searched the market to select world-class suppliers, ensuring that B2GO products are made only with the finest ingredients available to provide consistently high-quality, fresh, and nutritious meals.

Salads

When it comes to salads, we like to get creative. We offer traditional green leaf options alongside modern alternatives like quinoa, rice, and bulgur. We deliver fresh salads, in whatever weight and package required.

Sandwiches & Wraps

Sandwiches and wraps have always been the ultimate convenience food, and they continue to be a key part of our menu.

We offer a diverse selection of freshly made or frozen options, featuring an array of delicious fillings and bread choices.

Our menu caters to various dietary preferences, ensuring that everyone can enjoy a satisfying and wholesome meal.

Hot meals

Convenience food is not just for the traveler. We offer a range of nutritious readymade meals for service and retail. Our recipes are inspired by regional styles from across the globe, and our customized packaging enhances the customers brand experience

Hot meals

Our hot meals are crafted fresh every day, bringing comfort and quality to every bite. We offer a diverse selection, including vegetarian, chicken, fish, and meat options, all made with high-quality ingredients.

With a focus on rich flavors and wholesome nutrition, our menu caters to various dietary preferences, ensuring a satisfying dining experience for everyone.

Desserts

Our desserts are crafted to indulge your sweet cravings with a perfect balance of flavor and quality. Made fresh daily, our selection includes a variety of delightful treats, from classic favorites to innovative creations.

Whether you prefer rich and decadent, light and fruity, or wholesome and guilt-free options, our menu caters to every taste. Using only high-quality ingredients, we ensure each dessert is a satisfying and memorable experience.

nutritional information

While nutritional information is typically displayed on prepackaged meals, B2GO takes it a step further by offering a world-class, transparent approach to dietary data across its entire range of products.

Following the guidelines set by the Food Standards Agency (FSA) in the United Kingdom, our traffic light labeling system provides consumers with clear, expert-backed nutritional insights, making it easier to make informed choices.

This innovative yet simple labeling approach empowers customers to select healthier options with confidence and ease.
